

Miracles that follow the plow :: Gratitude

Gratitude - posted by mguldner (), on: 2010/11/4 19:04

I would like to humbly express my gratitude to all that participate on this site. I can truly say that I love you all and would like to thank you for lifting me up in prayer along with my family and friends. I have great joy in knowing that I have a group of brothers and Sisters in Christ that I can go to and it certainly makes the uphill climbs of life easier knowing there are others like me making the same exact climbs. Thank brother Greg and his Moderators for doing a splendid job of running the site and offering its resources free of charge.

But anyways just to show my gratitude I thought I would just say THANK YOU and God Bless to EVERYONE!
