Hi, I'm hoping this is in the right place, if not, I guess I will have to write an e-mail.

I have been trying for years to find a site that has a decent collection of walter martin's teachings. I know there is the site waltermartin.com, but they constantly change the available material, and everything is in old formats.

Is it possible that there are any on sermonindex? I have not been able to find them.

There are free downloads which enable 'old formats' to be transformed even to mp4.

I could only find these three on here.
