Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/23 11:16

I believe it was 1995 when I heard a sermon by a Baptist Evangelist. He mention pleading the Blood of Christ for protection but he did not teach on the subject. He just mentioned it and that was it.

A few months went by and the Lord brought that part of the sermon back to my mind. So I began studying every thing that I could on the blood.

Over the years, I have learned to plea the blood of Christ over my family and for myself for protection. Without getting into an exhaustive study I will just leave here in the forum the prayer that I pray.

Pleaing the Blood of Christ for house hold protection.

Father in Jesus name, I plea the blood of Jesus, from the roof top down all outer walls, windows and doors. over all of my property and over every object on my property. Father, I plea this Holy blood of Christ all the way to the throne of God.

Now Father, I plea the Blood of Jesus, from the rafters down all inner walls window's and doors, ceilings and floors, over every object in my house, over myself, my wife (Say there name) and my children (say there name), from the crown of our heads to the soles of our feet. Father I plea this blood all the way to the throne of God. Amen.

I always pray this prayer before going to sleep at night. The Blood of Christ, is powerful. I ask you to pray to God, for wisdom, knowledge to apply Godly wisdom, knowledge and revelation according to his will and word. Amen.

As a driver, have you notice how bad it has been just to drive your car to work or any where you maybe going?

I believe "road Rage" is due to a lack of patience. The devil uses this against us (all of man-kind). I want you to notice that patience is a learned action, you earn it. Do not give into anxeitey especially when driving.

pleaing the Bllod of Christ over your car or whatever you are operating.

Father I plea the Blood of Jesus over my vehical. From top to bottom, side to side, front to back. Father, I plea this Holy blood on the inside top to floor, dash board to the interior of the trunk and over myself (the driver) and the passenger(s) say their names. and any passenger that may ride in this vehical today. Father, I believe that Jesus precious blood, for safty and protection today. Father, I ask you through the Holy Spirit, to guide my actions and responses as we drive to and from (say the destinations) and anywhere we may have to go. i plea this blood all the way to the throne of God. Thank you Father, Amen.

Now I ask you to do your own study on the Blood of Christ. Get your concordance and Bible and begin studying. A few Books that I have read on this subject are:

Power of the Blood

Amen! I also plead the Blood of Jesus over my family, friends, my home and more. Glory to God for the Precious & Powerful Blood of our Savior.

Re: Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection - posted by narrowpath, on: 2010/11/23 16:59

Although very widespread in Christian circles I have found nowhere in the bible that we should claim the blood for protection of ourselves or property.
Forgive me if I sound harsh, but this borders on superstition.

Please show me one bible verse to prove your point.

The blood atoned for the sins of the whole world, past present and future.
We were purchased, justified and redeemed by Him
Christ brings us into a covenant relationship through his blood.

The blood deals with our sins, but does not protect property or ourselves.

1. John

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

8 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Re: - posted by MyVeryHeart (), on: 2010/11/23 17:06

The blood of Christ protects those who have faith in Him from the Wrath of God revealed against all unrighteousness.

Re: - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2010/11/23 18:37

I tend to agree with narrowpath.

Years ago I read much about 'pleading the blood' and used it to thwart temptation and it worked - for a while.

As time went on I became disillusioned because it quit working. I was looking to a method to accomplish 'whatever' needed to be done. And the scriptures did not teach it, either.

At this point I look to the LORD Jesus for guidance. In doing so I also have a deep appreciation for the Blood of Jesus, knowing full well its significance in my redemption.

When I need protection I will ask Him; if I need insight, I ask Him; whatever it is I am in need of I will lay this at his feet. How he will answer my concerns rests in His almighty power - and methods will vary. God cannot be manipulated by 'words'. If he tells me to 'plead the blood' I will be happy to do so, but it will only be at his direction.

If you live a holy life Satan is already bound because, "Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world."

Re: - posted by Joyful_Heart, on: 2010/11/23 19:42

I don't care about being wrong. I just want truth.

So, in all sincerity do you see it as wrong, hindering or just unnecessary? I don't preach it or teach it, I just pray it but if it is wrong or hindering I want to know. Thanks for your input. I am also asking the Lord to show me. Maybe it just makes me feel good remembering the Blood. I am not sure now..

Re: - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/23 20:46

Amen, MrBillPro!

Remember... We overcome with the Blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony.

Re: - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2010/11/23 20:55

Sheri,

I would hope you will not feel intimidated by my post.

Appreciate the Blood of Jesus but more important love the person from whom it came and I am sure you do. This is the key, trust Him...How He will accomplish His will will take many forms...just be prepared to be surprised! :-)

Study to show yourself approved. Pray until you find your answers.

Many old time preachers preached and written about the blood. Search the sermons here on sermonindex.

I will not argue the word of God with anyone here. They have a Bible the same as I do. Listen if you want to know the truth study and pray. It's not the easiest route but it is the safest.

Study to show yourself approved.

Re: Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection, on: 2010/11/23 21:02

I would like to add a little.

The blood of Jesus Christ has spiritual power with God. By it, we are cleansed within from sin BECAUSE God accepted Christ's life as THE acceptable sacrifice by which we may be released from the power of sin.

As narrowpath shewed, it is important for us to walk in the light as He is in the light, for if we do not, or if we sin, we give the enemy genuine occasion against us; then we feel out of fellowship with God and it is absolutely fine to pray in such a way as to invite the power of the blood to cleanse from sin again.

Being freed from sin and free from sin, we are a particular prey to spiritual attack.

Revelation 12:10

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Luke 10:18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

Philippians 2: he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: 10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of in heaven, and in earth, and under the earth; 11 And every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

So, the name of Jesus has power, if we are in Him and He in us, to deal with the strongholds in our lives, as well as spiritual attacks from outside. His Word (scripture) is a sword in our mouth.

We cannot prevent being attacked, but we can resist. Paul mentions both 'the armour of light' Romans 13:12, and 'the whole armour of God' Ephesians 6:

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high. 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

I believe there is far more power in praying for one another than we realise.

The significance of the parts of the body and the items and directions for their protection or use, is all hinted at in the Old Testament in many ways and places, and is a worthwhile study. The ground, in Ephesians 6, is the VICTORY ground.

1 John 5:4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, our faith. 5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

Re: - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/23 23:20

narrowpath,

We draw a blood line to keep the devil out. It isn't superstition, quaky stuff. I'll give you a complete chapter. There is no one verse that says do this. You don't have to. However, those that have revelation do.

Exodus chapter 12. read the whole chapter. It is in the passover. Then conduct a study on the topic.

Pray and study. Andrew Murray and many preachers of old have taught and wrote about it.

Re: - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/23 23:28

Hmmm, I never knew Jesus would quite working in ones life.
We are in a blood covenant with the Father (God), through Christ Jesus our Lord.

You can disagree that is your choice.
All i ask is that you spend some time in prayer and study.
Thank you.

Re: - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/24 10:57

I won't argue with that. Amen. However, Paul lived a Holy life and so did all of the Aposles, didn't the devil attack each a nd everyone of them?

Not everyone will agree with the pleading of the Holy Blood Of Christ and that's fine. But for those whom d,o use the pra yer model at the beggining of this thread. Then begin your study and pray for wisdom, knowledge and revelation accordi ng to God's will and word.

Again this is not superstitious mumbo jumbo. We draw a blood line in faith to thwart or stop the attacks of the devil on ou rselves and family.

Re: - posted by MrBillPro (), on: 2010/11/24 11:04

sonsigns, I Love your posts, they are short and sweet, and I can feel your sincere Love for Christ in them, and your swe et spirit you carry. May God continue to Bless you and work through you, to bring in the lost sheep.

Thank you all for your kind and loving replies. Two things I do know. One, I will seek and two, God is faithful. Glory to Go d. May we know Him in Spirit and in Truth and this comes by seeking, asking and waiting. Again, thank you all. Your a bl essing.

Re: - posted by narrowpath, on: 2010/11/24 13:15

Hello Sonsigns,

Here it says in Exodus:

12For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and b east; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

13And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over yo u, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

As some said here before, the blood of the lamb protects from God's judgement. The destroyer was God's angel, and no t a satanic entity.

There is a measure of protection when we confess our sins and the blood cleanses us from all sins. Nevertheless Satan does accuse and attack the elect of God and this is what the saints in the OT and NT constantly experienced - even to t he point of death. Nobody in the bible ever "claimed the blood" for protection from Satan.

Satan does not have to trouble backslidden or pseudo Christians, because he has them under his control already.

When it comes to the word of God, we must be most accurate or we miss the point. I may sound argumentative but you still have not convinced me by scripture. I you do so, I will easily be convinced.

Re: Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection - posted by PQ (), on: 2010/11/24 14:02

Interesting discussion... I want to add 1 John 2:12-13

The Apostle John mentioned
12 I am writing unto you little children,...

13 I am writing to you, fathers, ... I am writing to you, young men,... I write to you, boys (lads), ...

We all are at different stages in our revelation knowledge (Ginosko - Eido - Epignosis).
A young man 25 years old could be a father. And a person 56 years old and a believer for 30 years could be a little child.

Romans 14:1 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

Romans 14:2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

Romans 14:3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth : for God hath received him.

Romans 14:4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

Romans 14:5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

Romans 14:6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

Romans 14:7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

Romans 14:8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

Romans 14:10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

Romans 14:11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

Romans 14:12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

Romans 14:14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

Romans 14:15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

Romans 14:16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

Romans 14:18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

Romans 14:19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

Romans 14:20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

Romans 14:21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

Romans 14:22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

Romans 14:23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Re: The Blood of the Lamb - posted by JoanM, on: 2010/11/24 14:24

I appreciate your request, Narrowpath, for scripture.

I am in the middle of a slow and careful study of the whole armor of God, making use of what I know of both the devices of Satan and victory in spiritual warfare. In this conversation, DOUBT of God/His Word is at play.

Have you considered Hebrews 9:19 in context speaks of our being blood-sprinkled as does 1 Peter 1:2. Revelation 12:11 speaks of believers overcoming Satan.

As you say: "the blood of the lamb protects from God's judgment" and "Satan does accuse and attack the elect of God". For example, as you sin against God and your spouse on the way to teaching a Sunday school class, have you ever heard the thought and felt the accompanying feelings, "How can you a hypocrite presume to teach ..." Through His life, that is to say, His blood, it is Christ's righteousness that defends against the attack. Again as you say, the Blood continues to cleanse.

I thank God for the saturating power of the Blood of the Lamb.

There is no real way to have the needed conversation here but meditating on Eph. 6:10-20 could lead to understanding the prayerful spiritual use of the Blood of the Lamb.

Re: - posted by Christinyou (), on: 2010/11/24 18:44

The physical blood of Jesus Christ the Lamb of God is not in Heaven. The physical body of Jesus Christ which is His glorified body given Him in resurrection is flesh and bone and The Spirit of God. It says flesh and blood cannot enter the kingdom of God. What was the altar the precious blood of Christ was sprinkled on? The altar was at the Foot of the Cross. That is the cleansing of the whole world the Word of God speaks of. This is just a small excerpt from Gaebeline's bible commentary; This is just the feet shod with the Gospel of peace.

""This perfect peace we have, in which we stand is our preparation. And we have the peace of God as well, yea, the legacy our Lord left unto us, "My peace I give unto you." Therefore we are not terrified by our adversaries (Php 1:28). Israel wandered over the desert rocks and desert sands for forty years with shoes, which did not wear out. We too wander through the wilderness, the feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace, a peace which will last as long as God Himself. Knowing this Peace, knowing we are in God's hands, knowing that we are Christ's and Christ is God's, knowing that all things are ours, we can stand and withstand the wiles of the devil. He cannot touch one who rests in the peace of God and who trusts in the God of peace."" End.

The Blood has done all its work and will never cease. But the living Christ that is in us, "Christ in you the hope of Glory", is our protection and all it takes is to believe that the Whole Armour of God is in us, that is why we are to put it on, It is already there, like a coat in the closet for cold weather, put it on.

This is going to be adversarial, but pleading the blood is like saying I bought a coat and put it in the closet for cold weather. My Coat of Christ was bought by the Precious Blood. Paid for in full, and is not to be accomplished by installment payments of my pleading.

Christ in us is the light and darkness cannot do any harm to anyone who lives in Light and the Light lives in us. The only way Satan can do anything to a believer is by God's permission to bring us to this Gospel of Peace, Christ. Like Paul's thorn, to keep him from being puffed up by the greatest of all secrets, that is the Mystery of, "Christ in you the Hope of Glory". This new creation race cannot be used to Satan glory, only to God's. By His perfect will for us.

Colossians 1:26-29 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

God is greater than even my own heart when it condemns me.

1 John 3:20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

Hebrews 9:24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

Romans 8:29-31 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

Satan is not our adversary, we are our own worst adversary, by our old man minds which keep us in bondage, bondage to who?

Gal 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

Heb 2:15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

2Pe 2:19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

We are not overcome, we are free, "if Christ has set you free, we are free indeed."

In Christ: Phillip

Good suggestion, thanks for mentioning this. The blood of Christ shed for us imputes God righteousness unto us, but when it comes to spiritual warfare we have the armor of God at our disposal. WE have to exercise it, if we do not we will be defeated.

Re: - posted by Joyful_Heart, on: 2010/11/25 21:06

Joan, I love that study. It has been a while but I am desiring to do that study again. Right now I am enjoying the Red letter in the Gospels and sitting at His feet. Just feel like being close to the Lord with His Words.

I have heard from the Lord on the subject. I pray we all will continue to seek as we will find. Glory to God. He is faithful. I would love to be your neighbor Joan - to pray and study the Word together. I would shout - Glory!!! Amen

Re: answers - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/26 23:55

Mr.Bill, thank you. I would really love to spend a day in prayer with you one day.

Narrowpath, I know that you are doing a study on the Armour of God right now. Let me ask you this... When you pray do you put on the Armour of God?

I mean do you say with your mouth as Paul did

"Father I put on the whole armour of God today. that I may stand against all the wiles of the devil. I put on the helmet of salvation, the breast plate of righteousness, I gird my loines with the belt of truth and shod my feet with the preparation of the the gospel of Christ. I take up the shield of faith which will extinguish every/all the fiery dart of the wicked. I wield the sword of the spirit which is the word of God, I will pray with all prayer and supplications in the Spirit always..."

If you do then how much more should we plead the Blood Of Christ?

This has been such a blessing to study again and everyone of you have been great with your responses. Here is a little more to nibble on.

Psalm 102:7

"Let the redeemed say so, whom he has redeemed from the hand of the enemy"

Pleading the blood of Christ lines up with this verse. The Bible instructs us to say with our mouths that we are redeemed

When the enemy tries to put the curse on you, say to the enemy, I am redeemed from the curse of the Law. (Deuteronomy 28:61)

According to the verse above "all sickness is the curse of the Law" and we (Christians) are redeemed from the curse of the Law (Galatians 3:13).

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so!
That is pleading the Blood.

Re: Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection, on: 2010/11/27 10:10

Hi sonsigns and JoyfulHeart,

About the blood, the first question at the Greenock Revival conference in 2008 which the panel answered, focused on some aspects. It's the first 9 mins of video.

After I posted earlier in the thread, I realised that I don't use the terminology of 'pleading the blood' because I use the more biblically supported language of being 'in the name of Jesus' - KNOWING that His NAME has POWER because HE overcame the devil on the cross, shedding His blood for an eternal sacrifice, acceptable to God for sin, and for sins.

The power of the blood only becomes mine to claim, as I put my faith in Christ Himself, the LIVING, RISEN, ASCENDED, seated Son of God, His labour over.

In taking the Name of Jesus to myself, I am also claiming His righteousness, and purporting to the world that I am walking in the light as He is in the light, and DOING all righteousness, as He did - not just in public, but in my most private moments.

Quote:

-----Let the redeemed of the Lord say so!

I like this exhortation. However, I think it is not merely for times when we feel threatened, or know that we have sinned. It IS the gospel.

I AM REDEEMED by the power of the blood of the Lamb. This is what we proclaim. Most people don't realise that the wrath of God is resting upon them until they put their faith in Christ's redeeming blood. Telling the awful truth, is also part of the GOSPEL.

The necessity of explaining the blood of the Lamb is first, to call upon those who don't know Him. And for believers, we should be reminded of it by each other every time we meet, especially if we are sharing bread and wine. We should be urging one another to believe, to be washed within, to be refreshed by His love.

The danger of all the 'shorthand' as Ron Bailey in the video calls it, is that the meaning from God's point of view, gets divorced from our understanding, and, from the challenge to 'walk worthy' of His NAME.

Btw, the sound on the video is out of sync, so you will be less irritated if you don't watch. I couldn't find an 'audio only' for it.

Re: Alive-to-God- Video - posted by sonsigns (), on: 2010/11/29 7:30

Hello Alive-to-God,

Just watch the video, excellent! I love questions and answers. Not many revivals have them.

Was that sermonindex, Greg Gordon on the panel?

the third man on the panel in the blue shirt that spoke mentioned that you really need to have a revelation of the blood. The reason for this, from all of my studying is that the blood is sprinkled through out the whole bible.

The Blood is our Salvation, for without the shedding of the blood there is no remission of sin.

It is also a Blood Covenant made on better promises. Better than the old Abrahamic covenant, without destroying the Law.

It seems the old timers from the 18th, 19, part of the 20th century had the revelation on the blood. Wesley, Spurgeon, Wigglesworth, Murray, along with a host of other writers mention the blood of Christ for salvation, Covenant and protection or safety.

I think it was Spurgeon or Murray that said, "the Blood Covers all!" And it does.

From the Video I like that the third man on the panel in the blue shirt said "The Blood Speaks". That comes from Genesis, God told Cain that his brother's blood speaks.

It reminds me of a story I heard once:

At the entrance to heaven there were many that stood in line to get into Heaven. Father Abraham was at the gate and asked one question to those whom wanted to gain entry to eternity, "What have you done with your life on Earth to get into Heaven?"

One answered, " I had a good life. I had a family, work hard and never caused any trouble". Abraham look at his scroll to see if that person's name was written down.

"Denied" Abraham exclaimed.

There was a young woman in the line watching and listening to many others testimonies about their lives. All being turned away at the pearly gates. She began to get worried because many of these people had better lives than she had.

This woman was a drug addict that lived on the streets most of her life. It wasn't until recently that someone had shared t he Gospel of Jesus with her.

She had spent a few months in the city mission cleaning herself up and trying hard to put her life back together. she attended every meeting and bible study that she could.

Abraham ask this young woman what her qualifications were to get into the gate... The woman took a big gulp and said..

"I plead the Blood!"

Father Abraham Shouted "Open Wide The Gate!"

Re: Pleading the Blood of Christ for protection, on: 2010/11/29 15:16 sonsigns,

Thank you for taking time to listen. Glad you were blessed.

Yes, the first person to answer was Mr SermonIndex himself.

The second speaker was Denny Kenaston (bearded, blue shirt).

Ron Bailey (philologos) was next (red waistcoat), followed by Al Whittinghill (blue shirt) and David Legge who spoke on Ephesians.

Re: - posted by davidc (), on: 2010/11/29 18:18

Jesus doesn't ask us as believers to sprinkle His blood or plead it, but to DRINK it.

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. John 6:53-57 (KJV)

He is our daily food and drink. He is the source of our life. We feed on Him by faith, and we have life from Him. We dwell in Him and He in us, and we know that we have eternal life.

All power is in the Name of Jesus Christ because He shed His Blood - gave His life for us. God help us not to argue but to lift You up.

We should all be convinced in our own hearts and always open for the Holy Spirit to give new revelations and a deeper heart knowledge of who He is and who we are in Him. Always growing in grace and love - bringing forth the Fruit of the Spirit.

We know it's God working in us when we know it was totally out of our doing - that we were incapable of achieving anything on our own. Totally could not have done it in our own might. We can rejoice and be glad because God has been glorified.

fied. Amen and Amen

A short testimony - not on the Blood - but how God and only God can be glorified in me.

I was asked by a leader in Church to have Church in a nursing home. I did not want to do this. I was afraid of old people, they were old and stinky at times. I didn't know how to talk to them absolutely nothing. I was afraid to get up and speak in public.

I missed the first meeting we were supposed to go to. The Leader came and said I was the one to lead this.

All I did was talk it over with the Lord and felt I must share Jesus with anyone the Lord gives the opportunity. I went with Scripture in mind to read. Knees knocking, scared, so scared.

But I obeyed the Lord and went. As I walked through the doors of this place I began to weep deeply. The seniors were all seated around waiting for us to sing and share. And all I could do is to weep and hug and greet them all. One lady had only half a face due to cancer and all I could do is hug her and love her.

What happened here was I obeyed my Lord even in my lack and my fears and He filled me with grace and His love to share the love of Jesus with these beautiful people. It happened the second I put my foot in the front door.

I was the last to speak for 3 years. I was privileged to bring Scripture and a chance for people to repent and to receive God's forgiveness and love. I don't know how many people were snatched out of the hands of Satan. He thought he had them but God had mercy.

Two points here. One is when God wants to use us at times it is because we lack so He can fill us with Him and then we can share Him only and He is lifted up and gets all the glory.

Second point is. I know that I know it was not me, not one part of my flesh, my abilities that did this. I am convinced without a single ounce of doubt. It was all HIM.

And to this day - The Holy Spirit brings seniors for me to care for one on one and to bring the love of Jesus to them. I love them with the love that the Holy Spirit put in me that day. All glory to God.

I ask forgiveness for this being a tad off subject. I don't know exactly why I was to share this at this time except maybe to always be open to what the Holy Spirit is saying and teaching and not be so determined that we know it all. (Not pointed at anyone at all). Only God knows it all. Amen and all glory to Him. In Jesus Powerful Name.

In my weakness then He can be strong.
