

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer request from K.P. Yohannan*Prayer request from K.P. Yohannan - posted by Joyful_Heart, on: 2011/1/14 21:09

I just opened my email to this heart-felt prayer. Please join with all the saints around the work praying for this horrible situation.

Dear Fellow Christian,

A Gospel for Asia-supported missionary whose home was washed away in the recent flooding in Sri Lanka is one of the more than 1 million people suffering because of the deluge. Read the latest update on the situation.

Please continue to lift this brother up to the Lord, along with the thousands of others who have lost everything.

Yours for the lost,
K.P. Yohannan

I spent a few minutes today praying for these people and that the believers church would be able to help them and God would use it to see many souls saved and added to the church.
