Sojourner7 has not checked in here since Dec. 12, 2010. Does anyone know what happened to him? I know he had some health issues. I emailed him but the email addy is not a current one - my email came back.

I am just wondering...I do miss his brief responses to new threads (edit).

Blessings,

Actually I was just thinking about him today . . . we must pray.

I've been wondering what has happened to him too.

Does anyone know anything?

Thanks.

He's probably seeking God in a deeper measure and by doing that the computer had to be put away. Let us hope that this is the cause of his absence.
