Is it the extreme factor of this guy and his church that the media pay him any attention?

He is nothing more than an independent fundamentalist baptist preacher who has a chip on his shoulder. He chip became a seed that has grown and has infiltrated his entire family to spread a message of total anger in America. These people don't know the meaning of love. They only know to shout as an Islamic terrorist does. When you look into his eye there is no compassion. Only personal resentment and personal anger spreading as a spider web.

We don't take vengeance and we don't applaud vengeance.

Luk 9:54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

Luk 9:55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

Luk 9:56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

nuff said.

indeed, it kind of reminds me of some of the postings i see on this forum from time to time.

quoting Scripture, throwing in some condemnation, salted with a bit of righteous indignation, wrapped in the fat of religion and set to bake at 450 degrees.

kind of like this gem when Jerry Falwell died:

its terrible to watch, right?....because you realize that there are so many unsaved people out there, and men that scream the loudest, like Fred, get the attention in the popular media. Which is why, when we post, we should try and be measured with Grace and Love, because we have many visitors here.

I think it is fair to say that when certain people get religion, thinking it is Jesus, their whole being goes wacko in the name of religion. Instead of individuals devoting themselves to their own inner fellowship and reaching out to their fellowman they turn it all around and becomes the pitbull 'for the kingdom' thus causing millions to run the other way and then accuse them of loving their sin because a rabid dog is running them off. How often does such a thing happen in the church?

Flip it around, the message can be so weak that it becomes a kind of universalism. In such a case you ask yourself, when then am I going to church if everyone eventually goes to heaven?
