Hi all,

Apologies to this forum as this is not Christian in nature, I suppose.

We live in Wisconsin, about 45 minutes NW of Milwaukee. If you've seen the weather, we will be getting HAMMERED, and I DO MEAN HAMMERED, today by fierce storms, large hail, and tornadoes.

Please pray for all of us that the tornadoes do not hit us, or anyone else. Already Iowa has been hit and the CNN pictures of the area don't look good.

PLEASE forgive me again for bringing this to a Christian forum -- but I knew I could depend on you all for prayers.

Thanks so much,
Yer Pal always,
Thee

Hi all,

Thanks to all who prayed. We made it! Prayer always works, especially if many pray.

I knew I could depend on you all! I'm here, if anyone needs to talk or request prayer.

Yer Pal Always,

Thee
