

Devotional Thoughts :: The Titanic's Last Hero

The Titanic's Last Hero - posted by Oracio (), on: 2011/4/14 14:16

99 years ago, on April 14th, 1912, the Titanic sank.

On the backcover of the book, "The Titanic's Last Hero", we read the following words,

“As the dark, freezing waters of the Atlantic crept slowly up the decks of the Titanic, John Harper shouted, “Let the women, children and the unsaved into the lifeboats.” Harper took his lifejacket---the final hope of survival---and gave it to another man.

After the ship had disappeared beneath the dark water, leaving Harper floundering in the icy waters, he was heard urging those about him to put their faith in Jesus Christ.

It was the night of April 14, 1912, a night for heroes, and John Harper met the challenge. Though the waters swallowing him were bitterly cold and the sea about him was dark, John Harper left this world in a blaze of glory.”

May we follow John Harper's example of urgency and love for the lost all around us.
