Dear saints,

Once again I ask you to pray for me.

Although the radiation treatment stopped a week ago, the working did not stop and my breast is looking (and feeling) burned. It is hurting and painful. It seems the working will go on for 2-3 weeks afterwards... (they warned me the last day I was in hospital this could happen...)

I have painful feelings around my heart area as well. and my stomach is upset. So I feel miserable at the moment.

Feeling extremely tired for a few days now, even more than during the treatment. So I feel too weak to pray for myself, I ask you to stand beside me please.

I know there is a great blessing when we pray for each other here on SI !!

My plan is to leave for Israel in 7 days from now and I really need new energy even to prepare before the journey.

Shalom,
Brownny.

Hi Brownny,

Thank you for updating us and I will continue to pray for you, please keep us updated as a reminder (for me) to pray for you!!

Just to let you know...

Slowly I start to feel better.

The pain in my breast is less.

My wounds are looking better today as well, but still need more healing from the Lord.

And I had a good sleep last night. So many reasons to be thankful.

It is unfortunately I cannot take the rest that I should take before leaving for Israel.

And being there I need a lot of energy and strength.

Thank you for praying, wish I could find the right words in English how to express my thankfulness to every one of you who so faithfully is praying for me.

Shalom,
Brownny.
