THE LORD IS THY KEEPER

by David Wilkerson

A thrilling Old Testament story in 2 King 6 best illustrates what it means to be kept by the power of God.

Ben-hadad, King of Syria, declared war on Israel and marched against them with a great army. As his forces advanced, he often called his war counsel into his private chambers to plan the next day's strategy. But the prophet Elisha kept sending word to the King of Israel, detailing every move of the enemy troops. In fact, on several occasions, the Israelites escaped defeat because of Elisha's warnings.

Ben-hadad was furious and called his servants together. "Tell me who is revealing our plans to the King of Israel! Who is this traitor?" The servants told him, "It's not what you think, my lord. There is no traitor in thy camp or in thy court; we are all true men. The man of God
