Christian Lawyers? - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2011/5/9 15:43

Saints,

Are there any Christian Lawyers that use SermonIndex (I know there are a few from past emails). I have 2 projects that I am working on that I could benefit from free consultation. Let me know brothers and sisters.

It is a joy to continue this work as God allows and by doing it with faith. Many ministries run off 100'000's of dollars a year. SermonIndex below 10k. This is God's doing not man's, so all the glory can go to Him!

I am only familiar with the ACLJ (American Center for Law and Justice). They represent themselves as Christians and represent Christians and can be found online. You might try them...

Christian Law Association- Attorney David Gibbs. An awesome help to Christians in our day. They call themselves "legal missionaries".
