I am so weary with the church experience. I came out of the charismatic church so feed up with the me me me gospel. I have for the last 2 years been attending a very large Baptist church in Lafayette. I have come to the point where it grieves me to go. No call to repentance. No exposing of sin. No call to holiness. No call to take up your cross, lay down your life, deny your self and follow me. Can any one please recommend a fellowship in central Indiana.
