You are worried about how you will get through the desert stretches in your life — how you will cope with loneliness, illness, difficulties, hopeless situations. But God is not worried that we go through such periods. His message to us could be summed up like this: 'If you are in the wilderness, I will prove Myself as your Father. Once long ago I provided the children of Israel with quails and manna when they were in the desert and had nothing to eat. I am the same today. I will go before you, too, by day in the pillar of cloud and by night in the pillar of fire. I will pave the way for you. With My presence I will bring you comfort and new strength. What more do you need?'
