NEW BETHLEHEM, Pa. -- School Bible clubs face many challenges these days, ranging from uninterested students to legal questions of whether such clubs are even constitutional.

But the Redbank Valley High School Bible Club in the small western Pennsylvania town of New Bethlehem certainly doesn't face such problems.

Two-thirds of the student body shows up for the 10:02 a.m. Monday weekly meetings. So many kids attend that students claim it is by far the world's largest Bible club in any public school.

Glory to God! This is so awesome! We pray this spreads throughout all the High Schools and the Lord will raise up an army for Himself with our youth.
