The Methodist Apostasy, on: 2011/6/19 19:04

The local news today said that a growing number of Methodist clergy are openly defying the ban on conducting same sex marriages and the liberal news media are trumpeting it with glee. The apostasy of this and other mainline denominations to me describes the "falling away" (apostasy) which is spoken of in Thessalonians; it prophesies that before the Lord returns there will be widespread apostasy/falling away.

It seems like Sodomites have taken over every nation in the world now, doesn't it? Since they have already broken into the churches, and already broken into the schools to take your children, how long will it be before they brake into our homes to take us, as they attempted in Sodom?
