

General Topics :: Midday Connection

Midday Connection - posted by jrcorry, on: 2011/8/9 20:49

It's a summer edition of the Millrose Club! Midday Connection went on the road to West Michigan and taped a Millrose Club program with a studio audience along with guest voices helping with our discussion. You'll hear about autism, spiritual abuse, and reaching out to your neighborhood, all on this special edition of the Millrose Club on Midday Connection.

Featured Guests

Jessica, Mary, Carole

Since Melinda Schmidt was unable to join us for this Millrose Club, we asked three listeners to join us! We're so glad that Jessica, Mary and Carole each brought a topic that they are passionate about:

Jessica brought the topic of spiritual abuse. She mentioned the book Quivering Daughters by Hillary McFarland.

Mary brought the topic of intentionally reaching out to our neighbors.

Carole brought the topic of autism and children with special needs.

Click on "Listen Now" in the upper right hand corner.

http://www.moodyradio.org/brd_ProgramDetail.aspx?id=73677

Praising God for Jessica's courage and for the healing that the radio program has potential to bring to other women!

Jenny