

Miracles that follow the plow :: prayer for my friend and his job situation*prayer for my friend and his job situation, on: 2011/8/29 1:29

My friend joel is a christian and works everyday out of the week as a musician and a truckstop for the past ten years or more. The truck stop has really became stressful for him the past year, with him working so much and just being yelled at at work for not doing good enough job, he has really become stressed out and has been looking for another job, has had a hard time with finding one. I feel his burden, he is a very busy man and he still finds everyday to be in the word for almost 4 years now, so i feel his burden. Please pray the Lord would help him in this situation and possibly open the door in his will.
