

News and Current Events :: Nigeria's Christian Persecution

Nigeria's Christian Persecution - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2011/11/15 14:05

Boko Haram's recent attack on the Nigerian city of Damaturu was but the latest and most deadly incident in the ongoing genocidal assault against Nigerian Christians.

In its efforts to impose Sharia law throughout Nigeria, the Islamist terror group Boko Haram has systematically targeted Nigerian government officials, Christians and those Muslims who dare to publicly denigrate the terrorist organization.

To that end, over 200 Boko Haram insurgents recently descended on the northeastern Nigerian city of Damaturu and engaged in a raging four hour gun and bombing attack with Nigerian police, a battle that resulted in nearly 150 deaths and the destruction of churches, mosques and police stations. ...

read more: <http://frontpagemag.com/2011/11/14/nigeria's-christian-persecution/>

Re: Nigeria's Christian Persecution - posted by gators52 (), on: 2011/11/15 14:25

This kinda puts all the "endless genealogy" arguments in perspective.... People are dying. It's time to stop playing and start praying. Psalm 66:18 is a sober reminder of conditions to prayer being answered. God Bless those who die in the Lord and I weep for those who don't.