Happy Thanksgiving everyone.

I wanted to say thanks for this site. It has connected me to the godliest of preachers. Maybe there are other sites out there, but I don't know of any other sites like this one. It has definitely helped me to "understand" more of truth and discern what is not truth. I only wish others had the same connection to these kinds of teachings, to know it exists.

Also, I listened to Carter Conlon and David Ravenhill's sermon at the revival conference and appreciate hearing from the Lord through these men.

Jesus is glorified in places like these.
