Simply ignorant! Nowhere in scripture is there an ounce of support for a church to do this. This just brings reproach on the name of Christ.

Stupid!

You have to wonder about these people, where is the Spirit of God in them?

Don't they know that this would get out into the media and they become a laughing stock and anger arise and Jesus Christ is blasphemed?

The faith is useless.

You have to forgive me, but this just irks me.

It's so very sad. Whether its Harold Camping and his end of the world predictions, Todd Bentley kicking people in the face, or Benny Hinn blowing on people to knock them down; the sillyness that continually brings shame to the body of Christ almost without exception comes from within "Christianity".

We become, as someone else said; the laughing stock, because of the non-sense that is accepted by those claiming to know Christ. Unfortunately, when this junk raises its ugly head, we all take the heat for it.

And our Lord is denegated.
