The Senate on Thursday evening voted 93-7 to approve a defense authorization bill that includes a provision which not only repeals the military law on sodomy, it also repeals the military ban on sex with animals--or bestiality.

On Nov. 15, the Senate Armed Services Committee had unanimously approved S. 1867, the National Defense Authorization Act, which includes a provision to repeal Article 125 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ).

Article 125 of the UCMJ makes it illegal to engage in both sodomy with humans and sex with animals. ...

This is disturbing on so many levels!

It is certainly a sign of the times. I spoke with a believer the other day who was a very vocal critic of the Bush Administration. He told me that the current state of the nation made him rethink all of the stinging criticism that he felt compelled to loudly share.

if one really looks into Senate Bill 1867, the National Defense Authorization Act, there's a lot to more to be concerned with than soliders, sailors or airmen fornicating with animals, which by the way, can be handled under Article 34 of the UCMJ...though having served, i never heard of any bestiality in the ranks, though i did see, over 50 sailors, studying at defense language institute, get bounced IN ONE DAY, from the service, for homosexual activities. Greg, believe me, unit commanders will not tolerate units getting gay on them. though 'dont ask, dont tell' is repealed, its amazing how unit commanders, and non commissioned officers can wean anybody out of their units, they dont want there, its an on the ground truth.

the real danger of 1867, is goodbye habeas corpus. i dont want to say much more than that...you can google it, When R and Paul stands against it, and John McCain for it, you know something BIG is amiss. God bless you both, neil
