Tombstones of Keith Green and Leonard Ravenhill, on: 2005/1/10 2:30

Up the road less then a mile from my house is "Garden Valley Cemetary" where Keith Green and Leonard Ravenhill are burried. I took a walk up to visit the burial sites of these great men of God and took some pictures I thought I might share .

I also plan on taking some pictures of Leonard Ravenhills house and office as well as Keith Greens house some day soon. (well, former houses)

Hi Laz,

Outstanding brother...

Just got back from perusing your site. You are doing a great job, the site has really come far. But the ministry itself...wow...Praise God Jesse!

My prayers are with you always.

Great pictures!

I agree with Bro. Mike. It would be neat to be able to see all these things in person. The pictures tough are really helpful.

Thanks for sharing!

I spend the last couple of days in my commuting time with Keith Green's songs. What a blessing they are to me!

Thanks for the pictures brother...

Great pictures Jesse!

Even the tombstone of Leonard Ravenhill preaches a radical and godly message. I love it:

"Are the things you are living for worth Christ dying for?"

That's a question I need to ask myself, I think, everyday. Am I building with strow or gold? What is my life?

God is sovereign,

Paul

p.s. When I saw that picture of you, standing in front of the court...I had to think of this picture of (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/myalbum/photo.php?lid882) David Wilkerson. A great friend of mine once said to me: "Keep looking up...with your face down". I think that was rather biblical :-P and we need it. Only God can move mountains.

Yea I love taking pictures. I just got a new digital camera so now I can upload pictures onto the site much easier. I'll be adding alot of pictures regularly.

There are two of me in front of a court house. One in Hartford Connecticut and one in Dallas Texas. I actually modeled the two pictures after a picture of a friend of mine, John Duncan, when he was arrested for preaching. Here is a link to his picture. You'll see how they are pretty much the same:

Praise God.. thanks for sharing brother Jesse! I will get those images up onto SI when I get a chance. It must have been a solemn occasion to meditate and think of the impact of those 2 men's lives. Let us be used of God as much as they were and more!
