Greg,

I woul like to share a testimony sometimes,..maybe.

Is this o.k. Or not ?

If so, where do I post it at?

Thanking you for Sermonindex.

I am really new at computers.

Art Katz pointed me the the way to you.

Blessings to you ,
Elizabeth

Welcome Elizabeth, It is always edifying to hear the testimony of the saints. Can we ever tire of hearing of the miracles of God? Shall the saints ever tire of sharing them? Maybe the times tell us that this is not something that carries much weight anymore. Maybe too many false conversions of the flesh have cheapened the understanding of the miraculous act. There maybe many who say yes, but speak to us of the current as well. Sister, we know without first, there can be nothing that follows except works of the flesh. So speak of the miracle of life. How God has brought you from death to life and how He continues to love and sanctify. The saints have a great desire to hear of such things. God knows the world needs to hear of such things also.

May our gracious Lord be praised by the testimony of the saints

It is wonderfully encouraging to read the testimonies of the saints! It would be great to read even more testimonies from the brethren here at SermonIndex!
