Zambian Christians to March Against 'Satanic' Flood of Homosexuality - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2011/12/29 23:0

Christians in Zambia have declared they will march Thursday in the capital city to pressure the government to clearly state that homosexuality is not tolerated in the country and should not be protected by the new Zambian constitution, according to local reports.

The march, organized by Christian NGO Zambia Rainbow Coalition, will reportedly take place in Lusaka. Zambia Rainbow Coalition has also called for including a clause in the constitution that would explicitly define marriage as a union between a man and a woman, which would presumably exclude the possibility of introducing same-sex marriage at any time, reported Zambia Watchdog.

Zambia is a mostly Christian nation, with the Christian community being very vocal in opposing gay rights or even tolerating homosexuality.

God bless them.

We have to stand up for righteousness in our lands. Not "them", but "we" and more importantly "I".
