Done for now. - posted by ___, on: 2012/1/31 11:26

Really, there should be some security functions on this forum. Shrewd as vipers, nicht wahr? Greg, find someone to help you if you cannot do it yourself.

Re: Done for now. - posted by mguldner (), on: 2012/1/31 11:31

What were you trying to prove?

Re: , on: 2012/1/31 11:42

Years back, a sixteen year old hacked into the Pentagon. Whoopee doo, as they say.

I guess the feel of 'power' over anyone else is just classic megalomania. Nothing new under the sun. Humankind desiring to be a god or just to get the attention drawn to themselves and away from GOD. Nothing new under the sun.

Re: - posted by ___, on: 2012/1/31 11:50

I'm helping Greg to improve the functionality of the site. Rather than remove features that the users enjoy and miss, further threatening to inhibit and cripple the forums of discourse, decisive actions should be made to address mistakes, bugs, and holes. And if he can't, there are those who could help him.

Re: - posted by MrBillPro (), on: 2012/1/31 11:55

Well I have heard God works in mysterious ways.

Re: , on: 2012/1/31 11:57

Friend, you could help Greg and the rest of us a lot more, if you care, by putting your money where your mouth is. As in, take your fingers off your wizard of oz behind the curtain keyboard and dig out your check book instead.

If a 16 yo could hack into the Pentagon, who are you?

No big deal technologically.

GOD the Savior is The Master of this Site. His Name is Jesus.

Know Him?

Re: - posted by ___, on: 2012/1/31 12:04

That's just the thing... that this is no big thing technologically. Anyone could do this and someone with more know-how could cripple the site. A gentle prodding by an annoying anonymity is, by comparison, beneficently gentle.

And I'm curious to see if the site will crash again today. Simple malcurisoidas.

And re: the money thing... I would be willing did I feel that it would help the site, but there's been little indication that resources are being diverted to that. These issues are not new, I've raised them before, but Greg's response, rather than correct the problem, is to threaten to remove functionality.

To delete my account and posts, but take no steps to ban me, nor implement a function by which new users must be confirmed, is naivety, it seems to me. So if I come and muck about and the site goes down for a bit, consider it gentle admonishment from one who would have the site secure and functional. But this takes assertive action on the part of the mo derator.

Re: , on: 2012/1/31 12:11

I was just thinking - "No News is Good News" - except The Good News...

GOD so loves the world that He sent His Only Begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him, will never be seperated from Him, but will have everlasting LIFE, with no more pain, no more tears, no more regrets, no more fears, no more hurts, no more emptiness, no more loneliness, no more attacks, no more working to put food on the table for your wife and kids, e tc....

Re: - posted by MrBillPro (), on: 2012/1/31 12:15

So are you saying those providing support for the site, that there is no indication it's going to support the site itself? Also, are you saying this why the PM feature was removed over, money? That's some hard to swallow accusations with out proof. Sounds like your mad, because someone took their ball and went home.

Re: Done for now., on: 2012/1/31 12:32

You're not "done for now". Go do a spell check and correct your OP. A little Freudian slip there maybe.

I love altruistic, selfless, humanitarian causes - but friend, there are better ways to get your point across - seriously - not that I miss the News section {eta} EXCEPT for those threads that were about the PERSECUTED CHURCH!

Hey - take it easy on your own nerves. Hacking is against GOD's ways and does put strain on one's conscience that thus affects the nerves, which lowers the immune systems ability to fight For you and decreases cell regeneration. In other words, you'll get old fast.

His Blessings to you, but knock it off, Please :)

Re: WORM., on: 2012/1/31 12:35

Typical hackers egomania....Julian Assange of Wikileaks fame....sees himself among the Princes of the Earth in his ability to HOLD POWER OVER NATIONS THROUGH HACKING!

So, this worm.. glories in his superiority to take down a prominent Christian site, and hold power over God, and his Christian forum.

I guess it had to happen. The only logical recourse is for Greg to spend the money to acquire an elegant firewall similar to banks or large companies.

If this is done, I would commit to my two shekels...if the actual cost was made public. Anyway....crush the worm....and may justice fall upon him as God rewards him according to his deeds.

Yep! I am in also with my two shekels under those conditions.

Yeah, but it would have to be better than the Government's as well.

I think the guy's just hurting and we need to just pray for him.

I remember when I lived with my Dad for a little while back in '79. The phone kept ringing during the very early hours of the morning and my Dad needed to get up at 6 for his normal 16 hr a day work schedule. He'd say "Hello" and only get silence in return. This happened at least 3 times and then the last call, I heard Dad say, "Fella, listen. You obviously need someone to talk to, so let's talk friend." The person hung up and never bothered Dad again. And Dad's not even saved 'yet'.

Maybe The LORD's teaching us compassion rather than 'security', in these last days?

Re: - posted by Elibeth, on: 2012/1/31 17:36

My friend,
Why would you want to do this way ?
Do you not know that you were made in the image of God ?
That sin has crept in to man, But He, Jesus, suffered and died, a horrible death, in order to bring us back to God' image.
If this web site would help just ONE person from burning, would it not be needful ?
Do you not know this Lord who is over the Whole earth ?

Bless you brother , with Himself,....there is no greater joy,
Elizabeth

You may not fear any repercussions with Greg, but there is One to whom you will give an account. He sees all things...including those secret things that only you know about.

Our Lord is merciful and compassionate, so I urge you to fall upon Him before His justice falls upon you.

I'm lost. Did someone hack the site?

Re: - posted by roadsign (), on: 2012/2/1 5:30

Praise God for bringing someone who truly cares about the welfare of this ministry. Let us pray that God will raise up "capable men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain" Ex. 19:21 May they serve cheerfully as advisers for Greg regarding this matter or any matter related to SI.

Repent and believe, then mercy comes., on: 2012/2/1 6:01

"I'm lost. Did someone hack the site?"..Everestosama

Yes. A few times with a total erasing of the front board. Now the debate seems to be how our attitude toward him should be; forgive him and pray for him, or just condemn and curse.

This is my take according to the scripture.

"Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

"Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words."

First comes repentance, then comes mercy. This is what Jesus preached, John the baptist, and all of the Apostles.

Repent and believe. This person who violated the site; stole in a way, with deceit....and now pridefully mocks will come under some measure of rebuke from the Lord...and they need it.

Not just because of the sake of vengeance for those he hurt, but for himself.

Here is a Godly example of being chastised ;

"Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes."

This person may or may not be saved. Of course I hope he will be, if he is not. I just believe I know God's ways; he or she will be judged for this, and maybe strongly. Whether they turn to Jesus afterwards, is up to them.

I say; Repent and believe.

Re: , on: 2012/2/1 10:27

My first reaction on this thread was out of mere head knowledge, but then I felt The LORD beginning to nudge me into a different heart.

I felt the conviction that this was 'a test' of our own reaction to persecution - regardless if it came from a struggling Brother or an unsaved man. According to Romans 8:28,29, this was only a test.

Re: - posted by EverestoSama, on: 2012/2/1 10:55

I guess I just struggle to see the point of it.
