Saints,

Please uplift "Benji Wurtz" in prayer who is Robert Wurtz son. He is in the ER right now and very sick, with migranes and a sickness. I heard it is quite serious. Please pray also for Robert and his family to have the peace of the Lord.

Please breathe a prayer for my son Benjamin. He is at the ER apparently having a reaction to something eaten.

Thanks for all the prayers everyone. They have given Benjamin a 'cocktail' of about 4 meds as if the problem is a severe Migraine. I guess the technical term would be Migraine with Aura. We are waiting on the CT scan results. He says the pain is down from 9 to 7. Thanks again for the prayers and concern.

I will be praying. Thank you for the update and letting us know what is happening.

God Bless

Robert Wurtz II - They are keeping Benjamin overnight for observation. The CT scan came back good, but he is still in pain and very weak. Thanks again for all the prayers.

We're praying Robert. Please keep us posted.

I just spoke with Benjamin by phone (as we are still out of town) and it appears he has a severe migraine coupled with the flu. He has been on oxygen all night and is feeling somewhat better today. The Dr's are saying he will likely go home after they do something to treat the flu. Thanks again to all that prayed and those that took time to be with him at the hospital. Thanks bro. Greg for posting this request. God Bless. Robert
