Today's message by Pastor Carter Conlon of TSC in NYC.

So very powerful. It should bring more than ever love & unity here on the forum, in our homes, in Churches, amongst the Brethren across the world. All glory to God.

Thank you for posting this sister, it was appropriate and timely. I would recommend the message by Teresa Conlon on humility too.

Thank you for sharing. I just finished listening and am inspired to love more.

The breadth, length, height, depth of GOD's Love. Blessed be GOD!

Conlon says: When Christ's church is so divided, we must come together in love - for the glory of God. You and I no longer have the luxury of division if we are going to make it.

Conlon asks:

“Is it possible that the testimony of Christ is not alive as it should in the church and the earth because we are preoccupied with exposing one another's frailties? Why would God pronounce this on somebody (ie the curse on Ham and his descendents) but somehow we feel we can absolve this and not pay a price for it?

A pointed message calling us back to God's command to love!

Thought I'd bump up this sermon, as I have referred to it elsewhere a few times.

Enjoy!
