Bondo Poroja of India

The Bondo religion is a mixture of their traditional faith and Hinduism. Patkhanda Mahaprobhu is their supreme deity. The Bondo have started worshipping many Hindu deities like Rameshwar, Durga, Brahma and Maheshwara. A ceremony called bud is observed on the third day after a death to ascertain whether the death was natural or a result of sorcery.

Ministry Obstacles

Friendships with the Bondo will be needed, pray for these to be developed.

10,000 people, many of whom cannot read, with no Bible in their languages and not even an audio New Testament ... just a few audio recordings available.
