Going Off Line for a week or so.... - posted by Joyful_Heart, on: 2012/4/1 12:24

Greetings!

I will be off the internet for the rest of the week. Time alone with the Lord. So excited about what He will say & what I will learn sitting at His feet.

If anyone wants you can go to www.Opendoorsusa.org for info. regarding the persecuted. You can also sign up for the devotionals to come to your email daily.

Also, http://www.prisoneralert.com/vompw\_persecution.htm
Voice of the Martyrs for information.

I will be sitting at His feet in His Word and at His feet learning from the persecuted Church this week.

All glory to God as He raises up an army for the last days to be an encouragement to others.

Now is the time to be alone with Him & get built up & strengthened.

Also, another encouraging word from Pastor Carter Conlon of TSC this morning. You can go to TSC.org this afternoon and listen to the message. So encouraging. "I Can Do All Things Through Christ Jesus That Strengthens Me."

God bless us all as we draw so very close to our Savior at such a time as this.

It's not how much we know - it's how much we have learned. Pastor Carter Conlon

Abiding & praying,

Love, J_H
