Prayer request for my health - posted by lindi1208 (), on: 2012/4/30 16:46

Brothers and sisters

I need your prayers. I am struggling with my health and have been for a while now. I am now struggling to cope my body is constantly letting me down. I have to pray to God for strength everyday. I have lost some of my hearing and wear hearing aids now. The drs could not explain why but just said it happens when we get older but in my case it's premature I am 33. I have lost sight in one of my eyes and also was diagnosed diabetic all within a space of six months all this was in early 2009. God has been faithful in strengthening me. Of late I have been suffering from severe headaches which can last up to 10 days often accompanied with nausea and vomiting. My body is constantly tired as soon as I start to recover strength wise then I get another attack. I wake up in the morning feeling like I have been run down by a bus. The headaches no longer respond to strong medications and I can't really pinpoint any triggers. As I write this I am in pain and asking for you to remember me in your prayers

Thank you for taking the time to read this request and May God bless you all in Jesus Mighty Name.

Praying!

My dear Lindi,

These things sound as if they might be the result of electromagnetic poisoning - this being caused by a multitude of things - cell phones, cell towers (or other heavy duty antennas), computers, televisions, radios, electrical substations, electrical lines, transformers, HVAC units, refrigerators etc. Pray specifically against these waves that are now flooding the land. I will also pray for you.

Also remind the LORD that He has promised to be our shield. He is a great and mighty God.

Hi lindi,

I am so sorry you are having to go through this. I pray that the Lord's presence will be mighty in you. I pray God will give you strength and healing as you pray in faith believing that he loves you and desires for your faith to touch Him. I pray you can come in contact with some spirit-filled believers that have faith in God for your healing.

The Lord's healing presence needs to be manifested in your spirit and body. James 5:14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

I do pray that you are or can be connected to an assembly of truly sincere spirit-filled believers who desires for the Holy Spirit to bring refreshing and healing into your life.

Lindi, am praying. Like HeartSong the first thing that came to mind is some kind of poisoning that your body is reacting to. Maybe metal? Have the DR's tested you for that? Have you tried a major body cleans? I do hope others do not see this as robbing God of an opportunity to heal but I do remember Paul advising Timothy and God does work in mysterious ways.

Oh Lindi, had no idea. You 'have' been a trooper to hold this back this long. The LORD strengthen you!
Have they tested you for Lyme?
Surely will be holding you up daily, Sister. You are a dear one and have been a blessing here.
Do you have a caring family or friends to help you there?
This is truly heart breaking but I admire you for the strength you've been showing but am very relieved that you spoke up. Definitely on my regular prayer list now.
Bless you and stay in touch on here. We've enjoyed having you here so don't hesitate to post.
I pray that He continues to be glorified by your life and holds you up, in Jesus' Name - by His Great love.
Keep us posted, dear Sister!

I am praying too.

What does your diet consist of?

Beloved brothers and sisters

Thank you all for prayers and encouraging words and prayers. Praise be to God the father and our Lord Jesus Christ! I woke up early this morning without a trace of pain or headache! This doesn't happen too often as the headaches tend to last days! The fervant prayers of righteous men and women avail much Glory be to God! I am on my way to work for a long day. Will post this evening to let u know how I got on and I will also prayerfully consider your advice on poisoning and other suggestions! :)

Much love to you all in Christ Jesus!

I would like to point out here the difference between being sick and being afflicted. Lindi is not sick, per se, rather she is afflicted. Thus, this verse would not apply in this case. If you continue reading, the very next verse after that one is for those who are AFFLICTED, that they should PRAY. THEY should pray. AND it makes no promise that the prayer of faith will necessarily heal them like the prayer for the sick will.

Here are some examples of what qualify as sickness and what qualifies as afflictions:

The flu or colds=sickness
The Black Plague=sickness;

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer request for my health

Any viral or bacterial invasion of the body=sickness

A broken or crippled leg=affliction

Withered hand=affliction

Alzheimers=affliction

Backpain=affliction

Brain Damage or stroke=affliction

Parkinson's Disease=affliction

Lou Gehrig's Disease=affliction

Migraine Headaches=affliction

Deafness=affliction

Blindness=affliction (i.e thorn in the flesh))

Basically, any injury, accident, genetic mutation or genetic anomaly can result in an affliction.

ETC.

Thank you beloved saints for your continued prayers. I truly express my heart felt gratitude for your labor in prayers! I have been fine all day headache did not afflict me at all today. I am seeking the Lord's face about many of the suggestions given on here. Approved asked about my diet.

I am a careful eater :) I live on plenty of fruit and vegetables. I do like fish but am not keen on many meats except beef and lamb occasionally. I do watch what I eat. I have been going through a trigger elimination by trying to find physical causes of the migraines. My body is just weary so often I just need to have a good balance between work and rest but even that doesn't seem to be working nowadays. I do a brisk 30 min walk three times a week in the morning. My work is both physical and mental I do 12hr shifts three days a week. Most of the people I nurse are elderly dependent people. Nursing is hard work so I do need my strength. I am wondering about magnetic waves as we are surrounded by these all the time at home and at work. Hospitals are full of electronic equipment everywhere!

I confess I was afraid for my health last night and earlier on this morning I kept thinking I might not make it through the day but God is faithful and He showed me my unbelief. It got me thinking that Our father hates unbelief in his children. I started to meditate on unbelief and lack of completely trusting in God in all areas of my life. I know that God healed my pain last night and answered your prayers yet there was this bit of fear in me. Now perfect love casts out fear because fear involves torment. I don't know why I felt that way probably afraid of the pain, discomfort and being unable to do anything when I am afflicted. The headaches at their worst are so bad that even when lying down my head literally pounds away even when sleeping with so much pressure it feels like it will explode. I thought I completely trusted in God but I think He is using this affliction to show me that I have some lack of trust in Him. I do not know what it is but there is something that He wants to work in me.

Please do continue to pray with me as I seek His face and will.

Blessings to you all in Christ Jesus
