Art doesn't skip over anything. When I read the bible, and something troubles me, I just keep reading - but not Art. He investigates, prays, and looks for God's message, the truth of what the scripture is saying, and the treasure that is there. This is one of those spectacular gems. As always, Art doesn't give an easy message, but I am grateful for a man who will search the scripture in the light of what God is saying to His people. He doesn't back off when the message is uncomfortable, or even if it causes us to reconsider the way we are thinking, (or not thinking) about things. Lovely message.
