The peace of God! (Roy Lessin)

Though everyone fails you, God remains faithful (2 Timothy 2:13).

Though everyone speaks lies, God remains true (Hebrews 4:1).

Though all things lose their luster, God remains glorious (2 Corinthians 3:11).

Though all would forsake you, God remains with you (Haggai 2:5).

Though the world grows exceedingly troubled, God remains in control (Hebrews 4:9).

Let the peace of God rule in your hearts. Colossians 3:15

The peace of God! Think of it for a moment. How wondrous must be God's peace! With Him there is no frailty, no error, no sin. With Him there is no past to lament, no future to dread; no blunders to deplore, no mistakes to fear; no plans to be thwarted; no purposes to be unmet. No death can overcome, no suffering weaken, no ideal be unfulfilled, no perfection unattained. Past, present or future; vanishing time or endless eternity; life or death, hope or fear, storm or calm—naught of these, and naught else within the bounds of the universe can disturb the peace of Him who calls Himself the GOD OF PEACE. And it is this peace that is ours to possess. —James H. McConkey
