

Miracles that follow the plow :: please keep my mom in prayer*please keep my mom in prayer, on: 2012/8/25 17:55

My mom Pat has been having problems physically with her hands and feet breaking out for some time now and it is not getting much better. Also she has a drinking problem which i think causes this to get so bad. Please pray for her life is not easy, her marriage is not doing good with my dad and everything. They need prayer for salvation. My dad's name is Vern. If you want to pray for my home family i deeply would appreciate it and my wife Allyces family.
