In great anticipation of the upcoming conference next week, The Church and Coming Persecution, I would like to remind everyone to pray for each speaker and for brother Gregg. Also, let us pray earnestly for the listeners so that the Lord will draw them and then open their ears.

I am posting this brief, introductory word that I shared a few months ago helping to set the stage for a bit of what will be shared. My conviction according to the word of God is that the last transition of the church age will be difficult, but glorious.

I would love to hear your comments on these things.

Amen brother, may His church continue to purify herself from the world and be spotless for His testimony.

Indeed, let's keep the coming conference in prayer.
