Police Detain 9 Christians, Send Two to Labor Camp for Holding Free Medical Clinics & Evangelizing - posted by sermon

Nine Christians providing medical services in rural areas of Inner Mongolia were detained by local police who also confiscated medical equipment and sentenced two of the Christians to labor camp.

On July 26, six Christians set out from the city of Tongliao in Inner Mongolia for rural parts of the autonomous region, stopping in places such as Jarud Banner, Tuquan County in Hinggan League, and the village of Shumugou, in Alide Sumu (township), in the Horqin Right Front Banner, where they held free medical clinics and evangelized among those who came for medical attention. ...

----- The reason given for their detention was that they were suspected of using cult activities to interfere with law enforcement.

Future reasons to be given to Christians here in this country, if not already.
