Duggar Family of '19 Kids and Counting' Teams With Evangelicals to Launch Pro-Life Resource Site - posted by ser

Springdale, Arkansas – Jim Bob and Michelle Duggar of the popular TLC reality show 19 Kids and Counting have teamed up with several national evangelical organizations to launch a new website that provides a number of resources for the pro-life cause.

Michelle states that she felt moved to do something about the abortion holocaust in America after visiting a Jewish Holocaust museum in Washington, D.C..

“A couple of weeks after we went to the Holocaust Museum, it dawned on us that there is a holocaust taking place right here in America!” she exclaimed.

Following the experience, the Duggar family began to pray about what they could do to take a stand for life. They called Dan Pennell, CEO of WMtek, who worked with the Duggars to form a pro-life coalition.

The result is LifeUnited, a group of eight Christian organizations that have linked together to work to fight abortion in the nation. The team includes Life International, Learn, Inc., Liberty Counsel, Living Waters, National Center for Life and Liberty, Family Research Council, The Justice Foundation, and the Duggar family.

The first effort of LifeUnited is the launch of a new website, simply LifeUnited.org, which serves as a resource to help motivate others to get involved in the fight for the unborn. LifeUnited.org features a number of articles about the sanctity of human life, as well as a section called “What does the Bible say?” which features posts that outline Scriptures that reference the unborn.
