

General Topics :: Can anyone validate?

Can anyone validate?, on: 2013/4/20 9:02

I was on a con call this morning in which someone said Eph. 6 was read at Margaret Thatcher's funeral. The person who was sharing this said the part of Eph. 6, focussing on the spiritual armor was read Maggie Thatcher's grandaughter.

If this true. Has anyone heard this report?

Bearmaster.

Re: Can anyone validate?, on: 2013/4/20 9:20

In reading an account of Margaret Thatcher's funeral from the New York Times, the report is true. 19 year old Amanda Thatcher, granddaughter to Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher did read a lesson from Ephesians 6:10-18.

The fact this word of God went out to so many world leaders who attended the funeral should cause us to say Hallelujah!!! May God's word not return empty and accomplish what he desires. That in bringing people to saving faith in Jesus Christ. Even world leaders.

Bearmaster.

Re: - posted by narrowpath, on: 2013/4/20 17:50

from the Guardian

<http://www.guardian.co.uk/politics/2013/apr/17/margaret-thatcher-funeral-streets-procession>

Thatcher chose the hymns He Who Would Valiant Be, the Charles Wesley hymn Love Divine, All Loves Excelling, reflect the influence of her Methodist upbringing, and the patriotic verse I Vow to Thee My Country.

The organ played Psalm 84, set to the music of Johannes Brahms, which is the same piece Thatcher chose to be played at the funeral of her husband, Sir Denis Thatcher, in 2003. Thatcher's American granddaughter, Amanda, 19, read from the King James Bible, Ephesians 6, 10-18, while Cameron gave the second reading, John 14, 1-6.

Re: , on: 2013/4/20 19:34

Maggie Thatcher sounded like a spiritual woman. I trust she will receive a welcome in heaven.

I pray those who attended the funeral will be impacted by the spirituality of this great woman.

Not trying to be political. No high ranking dignitary from the Obama administration went to the funeral. Makes one wonder?

Bearmaster.

Re: - posted by ginnyrose (), on: 2013/4/20 21:19

Impressive.

This proves once again the reality of Ecclesiastes 7:2: It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

I have experienced it many times when attending the funeral of a saint the sacredness of the occasion. There is a sense of the profound at work.

Re: - posted by Sidewalk (), on: 2013/4/27 23:15

Obama did not go to Lady Thatcher's funeral. He heard none of the words that honored God or His faithful servant being laid to rest.

Rather he went to the Planned Parenthood fund raiser and said "God bless Planned Parenthood."

Yes. It really is that bad.