

Devotional Thoughts :: ABSOLUTE ACCESS by David Wilkerson

ABSOLUTE ACCESS by David Wilkerson - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/6/11 12:34

Every four years, America inaugurates a president to what is called "the most powerful office on earth." His signature is law. He commands the world's most powerful army. But the power he holds is nothing compared to the power Jesus has given to you and me.

We have absolute access to the very presence of the Creator, the living God! "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way . . . let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith" (Hebrews 10:19-22).

The word boldness in this verse means "to act openly with confidence or to secure publicity." Beloved, that "publicity" is for the devil's sake. It means we can say to every demon in hell, "I have a right by the blood of Jesus Christ to walk into the presence of God and talk to Him—and He to me!"

Do you believe you have this right, that God is willing to come out and meet you? Let us draw near to Him with a heart full of the assurance of faith! We do not come by the blood of a bird or goat or bull but by the blood of our Lord Jesus.

"Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctified to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?" (Hebrews 9:12-14).

Nothing thrills the heart of God more than having His children come to Him in boldness, without timidity. He wants us to come, saying, "I have a right to be here. And even if my heart condemns me, God is greater than my heart" (see 1 John 3:20).