Conference Theme: Sleeping Virgins And The Soon Coming Of Christ

The message is clear from the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 25:1-13) God is doing an end-times work to gather His bride for His glory. The warnings are many in the end-times of false gospels, losing the love of God in our hearts yet the hope is much greater of the soon coming of the Lord. We must be watching and prepared for what is to come upon the earth. God is desiring to make His people ready so they can be a life-giving stream to the world of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Do consider to have your church fellowships or house church join us for this year's free SermonIndex Simulcast.

Re: SermonIndex.net Simulcast Conference 2013: Sleeping Virgins And The Soon Coming O - posted by Anamosa41 (),

Thank you for announcing this, brother. I have been praying for this conference and will continue to. May God richly bless it for His glory. I know the past two conferences have been a great blessing for my family and myself.
