Hi all,

Destiny's Child    Isiash 7:14

My destiny is A special place
A New Heaven A New Earth
Where Angels sing and Elders praise
Where I will see your Holy face
Your Holy Face ,Your Holy Face

I'm a joyful child of a holy race
A pilgrim here not to dwell on lifes highs n Lows
I'm a joyful child of a holy race
I am made to see your Holy face
Your holy face, Your holy face

( So that he will have the best of me
For Jesus is the face of destiny
In this present life and in the next
I bow my heart and bend my knee)

While serving in this fallen world,
I pray its you they see instead not me
While I'm here I'll seek your Face
Your Holy Face ,Your Holy Face

And finally with waiting over and my lap complete
With no breath left in me,
My successes,failures put beneath your feet
Its my destiny to see your face
My destiny to see your face

( So that he will have the best of me
For Jesus is the face of destiny
In this present life and in the next
I bow my heart and bend my knee)

Yours Staff
