

News and Current Events :: Christian languishing in NK prison says health worsening*Christian languishing in NK prison says health worsening - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2013/8/5 23:39

Kenneth Bae of Lynnwood, Washington, lives in China with his wife and conducts tours of North Korea. The committed Christian is in his third month of a 15-year prison term in a North Korean prison camp. Bae is in prison on the charge of "committing hostile actions" against the communist country." In reality, he is being punished for speaking to people in North Korea about Jesus.

In an interview with Seattle's King 5 television, Terri Chung, Bae's sister, revealed that the diabetic Bae is going blind. He turned 45 years old this week.

"He's asking us directly and saying, You know, my health is failing. I need help," she stated. "I would say there is a new note of desperation." ...

read more: <http://onenewsnow.com/persecution/2013/08/02/christian-languishing-in-nk-prison-says-health-worsening?>

Re: Christian languishing in NK prison says health worsening - posted by proudpapa, on: 2013/8/5 23:53

Pray for Kenneth Bae.