1 Cor. 15:3-22 Prov. 16:2

I passed on to you what I recieved, of which this was most important that Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures says; that he was buried and was raised to life on the third day as the Scripture says; and that he was seen by Peter and then by the twelve apostles. After that, Jesus was seen by more than five hundred of the believers at the same time. Most of them later by all the apostles.

Now since we preached that Christ was raised from the dead, why do some of you say that people will not be raised from the dead? If no one is ever raised from the dead, then Christ has not been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is worth nothing, and your faith is worth nothing. And also, we are guilty of lying about God, because we testified of him that he raised Christ from the dead. But if people are not raised, Christ has not been raised either. And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith has nothing to it; you are still guilty of your sins. And those Christ who have already died are lost. If our hope in Christ is for this life only, we should be pitied more than anyone else in the world.

But Christ has truly been raised from the dead-the first one and proof that those who sleep in death will also be raised. Death has come because of what one man did, but the rising from the death also comes because of what one man. In Adam all of us die. In the same way, in Christ all of us will be made alive again.

I said to the Lord, "You are my Lord. Every good thing I have comes from you." As for the godly people in the world, they are the wonderful ones I enjoy.

The head of every man is Christ, the head of a woman is man and the head of Christ is God.

Deltaech1385,

Your post ministered greatly to me.. I can't stop reading it. I admit that I had forgotten my First Love; which is his Word. Gods word is so infinite and infallible, how could i have ceased from seeking this divine revelation.
