hi all,just a poem about the folly of an atheist,

CAN YOU SEE THE ATHEIST IN OUR LIVES?

where is the atheist at the birth of his daughter?
has your heart grown harder or has it got softer?

where is atheist who say theY have no religion?
preaching evolution with a fErvant vision.

where is the atheist in our young peoples lives?
put in the centre by their diSiples and scribes.

where is the atheist when we are going to die?
withH no consoling words;please don't even try!

where is the at the funeral parloUr?
cold comfort in a loved one's greAt hour.

where is the athelst at god's judgement seat?
believing in jeSus and feeling the heat!

GOD takes no pleasure that the atheist should perish but rather they come to know the one we all love,the one we all ch erish!

CAN YOU SEE HIM THAT IS GOD?

An Atheist apparently believes that he created the universe all by himself, while he wasn't even paying attention.

No other explanation for how things got here...
