Carter Conlon preached from the heart of God again yesterday, what a message of hope for this dark hour and helpless generation. O church of Christ rise up now in faith!

Please go to the Times Square Church web site and download this message.

Blessed Lord Jesus, teach Thy Church what it means so to live and labor for Thee, in the Spirit of unceasing prayerfulness, that our faith may rise to the assurance that Thou wilt in very deed, in a way surpassing all expectation, meet the crying need of a dying world. Amen - A. Murray

In Christ,

Ron

Thank you for bringing this up, Bro. Ron. Especially for us here in New York and surrounding areas, it is most encouraging to see God establish a brightly shining testimony in the midst of this dark and oppressive time.

Just got done listening to this message. Tremendous word from God's heart. May we rise up to what God wants for each of us in these last days.
