One of my favorites is Paris Reidhead, The Key to Understanding. Another is, Keith Daniel, Persecution, Affliction, and Tribulation. He gives a word to the church about 8 minutes from the end that I believe is sooo right on. Dian.

I agree it's awful hard to pick just 1. But if I had to, the most challenging message for me has been "Christless Pentecost". Powerful, powerful sermon (in 2 pts)

Re: - posted by deltadom (), on: 2005/3/26 19:58

I am the same :-) I should have really said your favorite ten

Like you say it is hard to pick just one. But the numbers do speak loudly. I will have to vote on "Ten Shekels and a Shirt". I've listened to it numerous times. :-)

Re:, on: 2005/3/28 12:59

I have to pick 4 (sorry):

The Price of Revival - Ravenhill
Ten Shekels and a Shirt - Reidhead
A Call to Anguish - Wilkerson
What is it to accept Jesus - Tozer

Carter Conlon's Testimony. Always refreshing

Hell's Best Kept Secret - Ray Comfort

As it's already been posted, I also like the Revival Hymn Compilation and Ten Shekels and a Shirt.

HOW many have changed your life

Re: - posted by swsojourner (), on: 2005/4/4 18:45

Hindrances to Holiness, (William P. Nicholson)

"And so you find that many are kept out of this blessing, they've prayed, and they've been desiring it, they've decided for it. They've made confession of it and yet nothing has come of it simply because there was an unwillingness for some one particular sin, there may be 5,000 others but one particular sin. If you could drop the sun out of the solar system, everything would collapse and if that one particular thing, dear friend, that you know, that one personal, particular thing, if you're willing to have done with that, and get that thing settled, glory to God, every other sin will be settled, too."

Re: old school - posted by relewis111 (), on: 2005/4/4 19:13

I think I gotta go 'old school' ... "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God." I like to put up the text while I listen. 'The only thing keeping the sinner out of hell is God's undeserved mercy'. Also the idea that nothing within our human wisdom or skill can keep us from hell but yet we all, (unsaved) think that somehow we will come up with the plan to affect our own salvation. I could listen to this until I have it memorized and I have shared it with others, hopefully with effectiveness in the power of the Holy Spirit.
