

News and Current Events :: Church Attacked in Malaysia

Church Attacked in Malaysia - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2014/1/28 11:52

Religious tensions are on the rise in Malaysia after a church was bombed early Monday morning. Police say that men on motorcycles threw Molotov cocktails into the church as they drove past. No one was injured. Authorities believe the attack is linked to the controversy over the use of “Allah,” the Muslim word for God.

On Sunday, officials at the Penang church found a banner hung on the church fence stating, “Jesus is the son of Allah.” Church leaders believe the banner was hung by individuals trying to provoke further tension over the use of the word Allah, a controversial topic in Malaysia. ...

read more: <http://www.christianheadlines.com/blog/church-attacked-in-malaysia.html>