

Miracles that follow the plow :: Prayer needed

Prayer needed - posted by Lee500, on: 2014/2/19 11:30

I am currently in a training course for a job and I was called on today by the instructor and I totally goofed up. Please pray that I will not have any anxieties and that my shyness will cease. Lately, I've been really shy and I don't understand why? I have been praying that my shyness will cease and that I will not be shy at all. Thank you all for your prayers. I appreciate all of Sermon Index participants. God bless you all. Shalom...
