Hi,

I'm trying to call in from UK london. Firstly they ask for my personal number, I enter it in they then ask for my PIN number. I enter the pass code and it keeps telling me it's wrong. Is there anyway I can get help to connect.

God bless,

Ruth

Thanks, this was awesome! even though I fell asleep listening late last night, just being able to put a voice with some of the names on the forum made it all so much better. I hope and pray it can happen again soon.

God Bless
