Bozo-Hain of Mali

Bozos are a nomadic people and are thus on the move. In general, tribal groups are refugees, living in perpetual fear of aggression from other tribes or powerful civilizations. Often they are able to survive by living where no one else would want the land. There is very little education within this group, but they are becoming more aware of the world outside. They are animistic; beneath the Muslim surface there is a strong animistic undercurrent. They have their own distinctive religious system and worldview.

Ministry Obstacles

Scripture is not available in the language of this group, and Mali is not generally hospitable to Christian workers.

Outreach Ideas

The Bozos are a nomadic people and are thus on the move. It is important to be willing to travel along with them.

Pray for the followers of Christ

There are probably no followers of Jesus among this group in Mali. But pray the Lord is even now preparing teachers and pastors for those who will soon come to him.

Pray for the entire people group

Pray the Bozo tribe will be able to provide a good education for their children, and become well prepared to live in a rapidly changing society. Also, pray for peace with other tribes.

Scripture Focus

"God has granted to the Gentiles also the repentance that leads to life." Acts 11:18
