I finally did it...i applied to go to the evangelism bootcamp in LA. I hate flying, the thought absolutly terrifies me!
I know i've posted this thread in lounge but i really need peoples prayers because i want God to open or close the door a s this is a massive descision to make.
If i go it will be a life changing experience that i can bring back to the UK and begin to put into practice leading a group of willing christians. Please please pray that it will be Gods decision not mans!
In His love, Geraldine

The bootcamps are great.

Blessings!

Brian
